

Durbar, Vol. 4, Nos. 1-3, 1987 (there was no Number 4 in this year)

No. 1

Twenty years on the Frontier – Battery Sergeant Major Henry Howe, Mountain Artilleryman

Book Review:

- The Saga of Ladakh: Heroic Battles of Rezang La & Gurung Hill 1961-62

The Guides: Brave Beginnings

Notes on badge and uniform books

The Kendall Humanity Medal of the Bombay (India) Humanitarian League

Indian Army uniforms from cards (Part Three of Three)

Badge identifications from previous queries

Indian soldiers in the British Army

Badge identification request – Ex-Service India

Query – British Army LS&GC to Indian soldier

Badge identification requests

Unidentified British officer c.1890s

No. 2

Some Notes on the Gurkha Brigade (Part Two of Two)

Indian Army Re-union 1987

Letter – Indian books

Punjab Frontier Force, North-West Frontier 1849-1903

British Officers in Indian Dress – Lieutenant Colonel G.F.N. Newport-Tinley, 31st Duke of Connaught's Own Lancers; Lieutenant Colonel Frank Wilson, 19th Lancers; Captain Binney, 5th Bombay Cavalry, 1899

Queries:

- nominal roll for Barrow's Volunteer Cavalry
- Rattray's Sikh Police at Arrah
- Pakistan Armoured Corps
- IGS bronze medals

National Army Museum – original sketches for Lance Cattermole cigarette card series

The Kullah

Book Review:

- Frontier and Overseas Expeditions from India

No. 3

An early award of the IDSM in World War Two

Indian units in Hong Kong

Book Review:

- Indian General Service Medal 1895 Casualty Roll

The Organisation of the Infantry of the Indian Army 1903-1939

The Sword of Loftus Tottenham

Lieutenant Colonel F.A.H. Wilson, 19th King George V's Own Lancers

Punjab Frontier Force – North West Frontier 1849-1903 – key to tables in article in No. 2

Captain Binney, 5th Bombay Cavalry

Badge identification – Pakistan Armoured Corps

Query – two badges