

Durbar, Vol. 22, Nos. 1-4, 2005

No. 1

Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry 1857-1859

Sir Arnold Talbot Wilson KCIE CMG CSI DSO MP

The Punjab University Brigade Signal Section in World War I

Two officers of 10th Gurkha Rifles on the SS Persia – Captain H.L. Ainsworth, Lieutenant C.W.H. Scott IARO

Two names from the Meerut Burial Register, 17 & 18 May 1857

Saragarhi

Letters and Queries:

- Gumbaz Levy
- Model soldier queries
- Centrepiece – India Title Badge (Vol. 21, No. 3)
- Delayed India Mutiny medals
- Becuphalia (Phalia) – correction

Book Notes:

- The Price of Peace – a catalogue of RAF losses between VE-Day and end of 1945
- Collectors guide to Indian Canteen Tokens
- Willingly to War 1939-1945 – an Emergency Commissioned Officer in the Indian Army
- Pen & Sword Books
- Spellmount Publishers
- The Rodney Foster Archive

No. 2

The Raising of the North Waziristan Militia now called The Tochi Scouts based on the papers of Lieutenant General Sir Charles Godwin KCB, CMG, DSO (single issue journal)

No. 3

Captain Francis Vallance Izzard RGA and an up-date on the graves of those killed at Singapore in February 1915

Attestation Ceremonies of Gurkha Regiments in British Service

“Uniform” – William Howard Russell of ‘The Times’

Jaipur Artillery

Letters and Queries:

- Responses to North Waziristan Militia paper (No. 2 above), including letter head crests
- 3rd Mandalay Battalion, Indian territorial Force (Burma)
- 17th Indian Division formation sign
- Sir Arnold Talbot Wilson
- Colonel Henry Connop (Vol. 21, No. 3) and Home Guard Lists
- Regimental history – 5th (Musulman) Bengal Native (Light) Infantry

Book Notes:

- To Freedom through China – escaping from Japanese occupied Hong Kong 1942

No. 4

The Silladar Cavalry

Letters and Queries – 17th Indian Division formation sign

Book Notes:

- History of the Azad Kashmir Regiment, Volume I (1947-1949)
- The Sikhs and the Sikh Wars – the rise, conquest and annexation of the Punjab State